Now one last short comment on our dear present chirping) I'm going to quote only one encyclical, a astonished. His first encyclical. It's an old tradition, encyclical is the most important encyclical because in encyclical, the pope says what is going to be his pontificate. His first encyclical is called Redemptor Homin Redeemer of Man. Mind you, not the redeemer of the redeemer of M-A-N, of man. Undefined, everybody this document, apart from the fact that the document of you know what, in his document, he never, even Roman Catholic or Catholic Church. He speaks about of the Church. That sounds like one of those TV "The conscience of the Church." He talks about New Advent. I don't know what the New Advent referring to his constant references to the year 2000. find out to the different, I know that the year make a change to anybody just because it's a zeros. Uh, who cares? And in his document, number line, he utters the following statement, "The amazemen value and dignity of man is called the good news, is also called Christianism." I repeat, "The amazem dignity of the human being, or man value and the good news, or the Gospel. It is also called Christia item christianismus. In the German translation of this I have, the translator was so ashamed of this that word, "It is also called Christianism." He just le
