NO ROOM TODAY FOR CHRIST THE KING

Bp. Michał Stobnicki

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Dear faithful, the feast of Christ the King was instituted by Pope Pius X in 1925. As its date the last Sunday of October was appointed, immediately before the feast of All Saints and All Souls' Day, in order thus to show the union in Christ of the three parts of His kingdom: the Church Militant here on earth, the Church Triumphant in heaven, and the Church Suffering in purgatory.

And it may surprise us that precisely today, on this feast of Christ the King, we hear the words of the Gospel of Saint John that form a part of the conversation between the Lord Jesus and the Roman governor Pontius Pilate on Good Friday. And we wonder why exactly today the Holy Church reads this passage of the Gospel to us. After all, in the public life of the Saviour we find many events through which He showed His divine power, His might, His authority over the temporal world. For instance, when at the wedding in Cana He changed water into excellent wine, when He worked the miracles of the multiplication of the loaves and fed whole multitudes with them. When He walked on the Sea of Galilee and calmed the wind during the storm, when He healed the sick, when He freed the possessed from the evil spirit, when He raised the dead. What a great king He was then! What crowds, countless crowds came to the Lord Jesus and asked for help.

But the Church chose for today's feast the Good Friday dialogue of Jesus of Nazareth with Pontius Pilate. Why? We find the answer to this question already in the Introit of today's Holy Mass: „Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and divinity, and wisdom, and strength, and honour. To Him be glory and dominion for ever and ever."

My dear ones, the source of Christ the Lord's royal dignity is His Good Friday sacrifice. He won His kingdom through victory over Satan. By His most precious blood, which He shed on the cross, He acquired the right to every human soul. Therefore every man, every family, every nation has the duty to recognise the reign of Christ the King and to submit to Him. As Saint Paul reminds us today, God has delivered us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of the Son of His love, in whom we have redemption through His blood, the remission of sins.

This truth is expressed in a most beautiful way in the Preface of today's Holy Mass: „Thou hast anointed with the oil of gladness Thine only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, eternal Priest and King of the universe, that, offering Himself on the altar of the cross as a spotless sacrifice of reconciliation, He might accomplish the mysteries of the redemption of the human race, and that, having subjected all creatures to His dominion, He might deliver to Thine infinite majesty an eternal and universal kingdom: a kingdom of truth and life, a kingdom of holiness and grace, a kingdom of justice, love and peace."

THE DETHRONED KINGDOM

Dear faithful, but with sorrow we note that in the modern world we are unable to recognise, to find this kingdom of truth, life, holiness, grace, justice, love and peace. With sorrow we note that the Redeemer is most certainly not so well known and loved as one could expect after twenty centuries. The imposition, desired by Judeo-Masonry, of the so-called secularism of the state in the name of a false freedom has led to the elimination of the presence of the true God from social life, and at the same time the imposition of a new anti-religion aims at introducing a spectral new world order, which is nothing other than a contemporary variant of the cult of Lucifer, a grotesque and obscene inversion of God's order. The apostles of the Great Reset are zealously conducting anti-evangelisation all over the world today, in order to subject souls to the tyranny of the devil under the inquisitorial control of the Masonic anti-church of Satan. At the foundation of all these actions lies nothing other than hatred of God and envy of the supernatural happiness that the Lord God has destined for faithful Catholics who will wash their souls in the blood of the Lamb.

Dear faithful, although we live in a time in which, thanks to the development of technology, we can connect with another continent within a second, it is precisely today that more people have heard of Coca-Cola than of Jesus Christ. With sorrow, and perhaps even with horror, we must state today that the principal truth of our religion, Jesus, Redeemer of the world, life of souls and of nations, Christ, King of our hearts, families and society, is today universally ignored not only by tragically [?] numerous wretched people, pagans, Muslims, Jews, heretics, but also by usurpers possessed by hatred of the Catholic Church, who carry out the infernal plan of a new world order: priests of the globalist cult of Mother Earth, servants of the World Economic Forum, promoters of the Mohammedan invasion.

The words of Archbishop Marcel Lefebvre are also relevant today, who summed up what happened during and after the Second Vatican Council by saying: „They have dethroned Him." In its essence, dear faithful, the conciliar revolution led to the emergence of a new, false religion, in which man took the place of God. And one must be completely blind not to see that this post-conciliar counterfeit of Catholicism is today one of the tentacles of the Masonic anti-religion of Satan, which is being imposed on all of us.

DAVOS AND PERSECUTION

The pressure is, and will be, ever stronger that we live according to its insane commands, accepting uncritically and with an attitude of devout submission the doctrine defined by the satanic sanhedrin in Davos. They want to force us today into silence in the name of political correctness, into taking part in the killing of innocent children, the sick and the elderly, into accepting mutilation under the banner of gender change and civil partnerships that are to replace marriage. In the name of green madness we are to destroy agriculture, eat insects instead of meat, freeze in unheated homes and restrict our movement to 15-minute zones. We are to agree to the deprivation of private property, to being turned into slaves through incessant and omnipresent control, and into chronically ill patients receiving fictitious vaccines.

Dear faithful, we must state today in all seriousness that there is approaching, and with great strides, the day when all those who do not accept the anti-gospel from Davos, who will stand under the banner of Christ the King, will be punished, excommunicated, declared public enemies, condemned to social exclusion, and perhaps even murdered as enemies of the new world order. The enmity between the offspring of the Woman and the offspring of the serpent, foretold in the Book of Genesis, is not fiction but a reality, whose existence everyone will painfully find out on his own skin.

NO ROOM TODAY

My dear ones, the sin of the modern world, the sin of today's so-called Catholics, is that they do not desire, no longer wish to see their complete dependence on the cross of Christ, which, as Saint Paul the Apostle wrote, is a scandal to the Jews and foolishness to God. There is no room today for Christ the King in the demonocratic parliaments, in which sit capable-of-anything, pitiful puppets who have nothing but contempt for God's law, who treat people like slaves and plunder them with taxes more than the Hitlerite invader, who together with despicable journalists produce brazen propaganda 24 hours a day, only to laugh among themselves afterwards at nations made foolish by lies, nations which they are leading to self-destruction.

There is no room today for Christ the King in hospitals, which are no longer works of Christian mercy toward the sick, but rather firms whose purpose is not healing or bringing relief in suffering, but carrying out procedures that bring death. How many of today's doctors, who force patients to submit to medical experiments, to receive elixirs filled with nanoparticles and made on the basis of the murders of the abortion industry, differ much from the angel of death, Josef Mengele?

There is no room today for Christ the King in schools and universities, in which children and young people are no longer brought up and educated, but bred like senseless animals. And the fruit of this collective dumbing-down, which is managed by the so-called minister of education, or rather one should say the altar girl of Lucifer, will be further ranks of learned ignoramuses, proud, godless fools with diplomas, living in the conviction that they have only rights and no duties.

There is no room today for Christ the King in the courts, which have become temples of injustice, in which criminals are protected, laughing in the faces of their victims.

There is no room today for Christ the King in the once Catholic churches, in which the Bergoglian sect has hatched today, accepting every error, yet burning with hatred of Catholic truth and of the Catholic Holy Mass. The attempts to destroy the Mass of All Time unite the deep church and the deep state, revealing in their essence a Luciferian character and hubris [?]. The enemies of the Church know very well what a treasure, what a priceless treasure the Most Holy Sacrifice is. They are well aware of how infinite graces pour out upon the whole world through the Masses of All Time, and therefore they try at all costs to destroy the priesthood and the Most Holy Sacrifice, so that the sacrifice pleasing to the Lord God may cease.

THE SIN OF LIBERALISM

My dear ones, every man who realises that Christ is Creator and Saviour, Lord of heaven and earth, must understand how serious the sin of liberalism is. He must conclude that this refusal to recognise the reign of Christ in society is the gravest sin committed by mankind since Good Friday. It is another deicide, and as then, so today the godless mob cries out: „Crucify Him, crucify Him!“ But this will change. The world will not remain liberal and godless for ever, no matter how the Masonic lodges and the smiling Leo from the Vatican may try to bring that about. The artificial earthly stars, which try to obscure the splendour of the glory of Christ the King, will simply collapse, and all will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the power of God and coming in the clouds of heaven.

Amen. In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. Amen. Praised be Jesus Christ.
